ORDINANCE 95876

AN ORDINANCE relating to the public morality, peace, safety and good order, making it unlawful to loiter or prowl under circumstances that manifest an unlawful purpose or warrant alarm for the safety of persons or property and amending Section 29 of Ordinance 16046.

BE IT ORLAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That Section 29 of Ordinance 16046 as amended by Ordinance 75624 be further amended to read as follows:

Section 29. (a) It is unlawful for anyone to loiter or prowl in a place, at a time, or in a manner, and under circumstances that manifest an unlawful purpose or warrant alarm for the safety of persons or property in the vicinity. Examples of circumstances which may be considered in determining whether such unlawful purpose is manifested or such alarm is warranted include but are not limited to the following: flight by the actor upon appearance of a peace officer, refusal to identify himself, or manifestly endeavoring to conceal himself or any object.

(b) No arrest shall be made under this section nor shall any person be convicted of violating this section unless such person is first afforded, if practicable under the circumstances, an opportunity to dispel any alarm or suspicion of unlawful purpose which would otherwise be warranted, by identifying himself and explaining his presence and conduct.

(c) No person shall be convicted of violating this section if it appears at trial that the explanation given by him of his presence and conduct was true and, if believed by the arresting officer at the time, would have dispelled the alarm or suspicion of unlawful purpose.

Section 2..... This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty days from and after its passage and approval, if approved by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect at the time it shall become a law under the provisions of the city charter.

Passed by the City Council the 12 day of June, 1967,
